

2008 - 2009 Outcomes Assessment

FLIGHT TECHNOLOGY

Goals	Intended Outcomes	Assessment Criteria/Procedures	Assessment Results	Use of Results
To provide ground and flight instruction that leads to FAA certification	Graduates will plan an IFR and VFR flight in accordance with the Federal Aviation Regulations and the Aeronautical Information Manual to a proficiency of 90% by graduation	Flight Conduction Stage checks Oral & written exams	There were no graduates for 2008-09.	N/A
	Graduates will operate in the air control system to a proficiency of 90% by graduation	Check-Sheets	There were no graduates for 2008-09.	N/A
	Graduates will procure and use aviation weather reports and forecasts to a proficiency of 90% by graduation	Check-Sheets	There were no graduates for 2008-09.	N/A

	80% of graduates of the Flight Technology program will be employed in field within 6 months of graduation from the program.	Graduate Survey	No response. There were no graduates during the 2008-09 academic year.	Identify new strategies for increasing completion of degree-seeking students.
	Employers of graduates of the Flight Technology program will rate their satisfaction with the graduate's skills at a level of 80% or higher	Employer Surveys	No response. There were no graduates during the 2008-09 academic year.	Identify new strategies for increasing completion of degree-seeking students
	80% of graduates will strongly agree / agree that the program adequately prepared them for entry level employment	Graduate Surveys	No response. There were no graduates during the 2008-09 academic year.	Actively pursue degree-seeking students through recruitment activities and marketing efforts.