THE COMPETITION

The Miss Wallace State Scholarship Preliminary will be held on December 2, 2018.

Just as the Miss America Pageant, Miss Wallace State is divided into four phases of competition, including interview, swimsuit, talent, and evening wear. Each contestant is scored individually from one to ten in each category with the high and low score disregarded. The contestant receiving the highest number of points is crowned Miss Wallace State.

How You Are Scored:

- 25% - Presentation & Community Achievement in Interview
- 30% - Artistic Expression in Talent
- 10% - Lifestyle and Fitness in Swimsuit
- 15% - Presence and Poise in Evening Wear
- 20% - On-Stage Questions
- 100% - Total

INTERVIEW COMPETITION:

The interview competition is your first opportunity to meet the five judges who will choose the new Miss Wallace State. The interview will be conducted standing at a podium. You will have a nine and half minute question and answer period with the judges. At the close of the interview, you will have thirty seconds to close. You may be asked questions regarding your application, your speech, your career goals, your platform, and current events. Judges will observe your personality, validated opinions, speech, and personal appearance. Interview is 25% of a contestant's total score.

Criteria for Scoring:

- * Overall First Impression
- * Attributes and qualities to be Miss America
- * Knowledge and understanding of platform issue
- * Sense of accomplishment
- * Confident and commanding presence
- * Validated opinions and responses
- * Communication competencies (Speech, grammar, Vocabulary)

The selection panel will consider the contestants' overall first impression; qualities and attributes of Miss America; knowledge and understanding of her platform issue; ability to fulfill the job responsibilities of Miss Alabama; sense of accomplishments; confident and commanding presence; personality, personal appearance and attractiveness; validated opinions and responses; and communication competencies.

Wardrobe for interview should be business attire. (Suit or dress) Be careful of the color you select. You will be very close to the judges. Your make-up should be natural and attractive. Keep in mind the "All American Woman Look". No pants suits or cocktail suits will be allowed. Remember you are applying for a job!

During the interview you will have an opportunity to talk about your interests, future plans, goals, and your platform. The judges will have a copy of your platform questionnaire to review. They will also be noting your vocabulary, voice, general knowledge, and how you handle yourself on a one-to-one basis. The time starts at the time you enter the room.

Note your feet, hands, and posture. They are looking closely at your hair, teeth, make-up and overall appearance. If you are asked something you do not know, say so. Be yourself. Do not try to fake an answer. Avoid rambling. Smile and articulate. Show your personality and have fun. You are free to move about as you see fit. Remember, Miss Wallace State must carry on conversations with people in every walk of life. She must be able to speak intelligently on many subjects - national, foreign, and personal beliefs. She is constantly speaking before the public.

Develop a well-modulated voice using all the rules of good diction and grammar. Use a tape recorder as you practice with your friends and family so you can hear how you sound to others. Remember to answer your questions to the point, do not ramble and waste valuable time.

To have a meaningful interview, you will find it necessary to convey your feelings to the judges. Be cautious in the use of "opinion" words. Know state government information as well as national and international affairs. Newspaper and news magazines are most helpful in this part. Remember this is an opportunity for the judges to learn as much as possible about you and your qualities and attributes to be Miss America; your commitment to advance your issue/platform as a representative of our college and your ability to express yourself and to distinguish your beliefs.

MANDATORY MANDATORY SERVICE REQUIREMENT:

The National Platform for Miss America is the Children's Miracle Network. You are required to register at www.missamerica4kids.org and raise a minimum of $100 to be eligible to compete at Miss Heart of Dixie. No "Miss" contestant will be allowed to compete without completing the $100 service requirement. The ABSOLUTE DEADLINE for CMNH is Monday, November 19th, 2018. Please print a copy of your $100 donation and submit it with your paperwork. We will verify your donation. This is a Miss America rule and is not bendable!!

Please realize the importance of the platform issue. Your platform needs to be a subject of extreme importance to you – one in which you are motivated and willing to go into your community and make a difference in its name. Community service is so important on all levels of the Miss America organization. In helping others, you yourself will gain in abundance.

The Focus:

1. An initial test for a contestant's community service platform should be: Can this contestant, considering her age, life-experience, and education - - be a credible and productive volunteer and spokesperson on this issue? The contestant must be personally comfortable with the issue and energetically committed to the task she has set. Enthusiasm and personal involvement have proven to be the hallmarks of successful platforms and projects.
2. If possible, the project should be one that the contestant has been involved with before she entered the competition. To avoid a time-consuming and often confusing search for a focus, selecting a prior area of interest gives the contestant much more credibility. Obviously, it is not always possible to develop a platform or project on the basis of a contestant's prior activities, but an attempt to explore one's personal experience and family background may yield a topic that may be more suitable than simply selecting one that is currently popular or "politically correct".
3. For the most part, a well-focused community service platform is one that can be described clearly and specifically in a sentence or two. If that proves difficult, a contestant may find that her topic is too general, and that both judges and those she seeks to motivate may not grasp what she is trying to achieve.
4. It is important that a contestant bear in mind at the outset that she may be called upon to carry her community service platform around the country. Although community service starts at the local level, the project should have the capability to expand from the school, town, or city to the state and ultimately, the national level.
5. There is no such thing as a list of preferred topics. Smaller, creative approaches to addressing particular needs may be more effective. Most importantly, whatever the topic, it should be something a contestant genuinely cares about and is willing to commit real time and energy to; ultimately she must be able to internalize it and make it her own.

A Final Note:

As a young woman approaches her first competition and considers the question of what should be the focus of her community service platform, she should turn first and foremost to her local director for advice. State and local directors will be able to provide the best perspective on how her ideas can be articulated and developed, so that she, too, can make a real difference as she moves up through the Miss America System.

SWIMSUIT COMPETITION:

Lifestyle and Fitness in Swimsuit (10%)

The selection panel will consider the contestants' overall first impression; beauty of face and figure, statement of physical fitness and health; walk posture, appearance of being physically conscientious; sense of confidence and comfort in her ability to compete in this phase of competition; display of energy, charisma and expression.

Swimsuit Style:

Swimsuits may be one-piece or two-piece swimsuit of your choice - - no particular brand or designer. Extreme French cut suits will not be permitted. It DOES NOT have to be a "pageant swimsuit". NO pantyhose are to be worn during this competition.

Swimsuit Shoes:

Heels are recommended for this competition.

Swimsuit Competition Walk:

Swimsuit competition is limited to a 20 second walking turn and pause. Physical fitness in swimsuit competition counts as 10% of the overall total points. Remember your walk - confident and graceful.

EVENING WEAR COMPETITION: (15%)

Presence and Poise in Evening Wear

The selection panel will consider the contestants' overall first impression; sense of confidence; personality and stage presence; walk, posture, carriage and grace; sense of style and appropriateness of the evening wear; beauty, sense of attractiveness and charm.

Shoes:

Strapless shoes and wedges are not permitted.

Evening Wear Walk:

Remember to glide across the stage. Even though you have Evening Wear on, bad walks are still visible. Stand tall mentally. Do not shift your weight from one foot to another. Always keep your weight on the back foot while in a standing position. Step off with your front foot and you will not shift your weight, because your weight is already on the back foot. Take small steps. Do not take long strides. This only makes you look clumsy. Small steps are more graceful. Therefore, you should not lead with your head. Think tall- this makes your stomach flat and you are in control of your walk. Be graceful if you know how to walk. You must show your personality and be energetic. Smile and enjoy yourself. Project and be natural.

ON-STAGE QUESTION: (20%)

You will answer the question in your opening number outfit—a cocktail dress of your choice and color. During the On-Stage Question competition you will be asked an on-stage question. The question will be a general type question. You will have 30 seconds to answer the question. If you exceed this time, you will be cut off by the emcee with a "Thank You".

TALENT COMPETITION:

Artistic Expression in Talent (30%)

The qualities and attributes of Miss America as well as the job responsibilities of Miss Alabama will be considered as part of the scoring. Artistic Expression in Talent also distinguishes both the personality and skills; interpretive ability; technical skill level (execution, technique, synchronization, control); stage presence; totality of all elements including costume, props, music, voice, use of body and choreography.

You must perform your talent within a ninety second time limit. There will be absolutely no exceptions to this rule. The production staff will make all final decisions regarding talent presentations. Your talent presentation must be live. There will be no duplication of talent presentations during the entire pageant. Examples: Two contestants singing the same song or two contestants dancing to the same music OR Two contestants performing any part or parts of the same piece on piano or music, which is being, used for the production during the pageant.

A grand piano is furnished for you. For a piano solo we do position the piano in a classical position. We do want the judges to see both you and your hands. Piano solos will be miked.

If you have background music, this must comply with the ninety second time limit, as all talent presentations. If there is no background music, you will be timed at rehearsal as all other talent. Make sure you can perform your drama act in the appropriate time limit.

Baton

It is difficult to twirl under lights on stage. Make sure you are prepared for bright lights and get used to this prior to pageant week. Overhead lights will limit your upward throws. No spotlights will be used during the baton performances.
