Associate in Science Degree General Studies (A.S.) with Concentration in Global Studies for Transfer

At a Glance

This curriculum provides for the study of international issues within a multidisciplinary framework designed to produce global competencies for citizens of the world in the 21st century, with a curriculum that includes the history, economics, politics, language and cultures of diverse societies. The global studies concentration will meet the academic interests of students pursuing bachelor's degrees and beyond in a range of fields in which a global perspective is beneficial, including but not limited to international studies, foreign language, political science, law, international business, etc. on the way to eventual careers in the global marketplace, with government agencies, nongovernmental organizations, and non-profits.

Admission Requirements

Students must have a high school diploma or GED and meet all the general admission requirements of WSCC.

NOTE: The Guided Pathways Curricular Maps below contain all the elements required for degree completion. However, courses may be offered or taken in other semesters so long as prerequisites are met and courses are available. Please see Degreeworks for allowable substitutions. Be sure to also consult the STARS guide for specific courses accepted for transfer at specific institutions that may be substituted for completion of this degree. Courses may be available days, nights, hybrid, and online. Sample maps for part-time attendance may also be available. Please see an advisor.
